

Do You Open Your Mouth

Like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you? Or, do you want to know something of the composition and character of that which you take into your stomach whether as food or medicine?

Most intelligent and sensible people now-a-days insist on knowing what they employ whether as food or as medicine.

Dr. Pierce believes they have a perfect right to INSIST upon such knowledge. So he publishes, broadcast and on each bottle-wrapper, what his medicines are made of and verifies it under oath. This he feels he can well afford to do because the more the ingredients of which his medicines are made are studied and understood the more will their superior curative virtues be appreciated.

For the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and derangements, giving rise to frequent headache, backache, dragging-down pain or distress and kindred symptoms of weakness, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy. It is equally effective in giving strength to nursing mothers and in preparing the system of the expectant mother for baby's coming, thus rendering childbirth safe and comparatively painless. The "Favorite Prescription" is a most potent, strengthening tonic to the general system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. It is also a soothing and invigorating nerve and cures nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea or St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms attendant upon functional and organic diseases of the distinctly feminine organs.

A host of medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, recommend each of the several ingredients of which "Favorite Prescription" is made for the cure of the diseases for which it is claimed to be a cure. You may read what they say for yourself by sending a postal card request for a free booklet of extracts from the leading authorities, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post.

It's foolish and often dangerous to experiment with new or but slightly tested medicines—sometimes urged upon the afflicted as "just as good" or better than "Favorite Prescription." The dishonest dealer sometimes insists that he knows what the proffered substitute is made of, but you don't and it is decidedly for your interest that you should know what you are taking into your stomach and system expecting it to act as a curative. To him its only a difference of profit. Therefore, insist on having Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

SYNOPSIS.
Bob McAdoo, fatherless waif, runs away from home and becomes a newsboy and mill employee in the Steel City. He lives with policeman Flinn.

Bob becomes a hero in the ward and when Haggin threatens to take his friend, Jim McAdoo's job from him, Bob decides to fight the political boss of the ward.

McAdoo whips Haggin, a prizefighter and saloonkeeper, and becomes boss of the Fourth ward. MacPherson, of the Citizens' party, seeks his aid.

Bob saves the life of Eleanor Gilbert, sister of Henry Sanger, the steel king, but treats her roughly and with contempt. He negotiates with MacPherson.

His support elects the Citizens' party ticket. Kathleen Flinn helps to educate him. McAdoo is cold and heartless, and power is the only thing he loves.

Paul Remington, a young politician, proposes an alliance with McAdoo, who rebuffs him. McAdoo quarrels with MacPherson.

Remington fights McAdoo politically and is beaten. McAdoo then accepts him as his first friend. Remington sees the "lady of his dreams."

TURNED BLIND ALMOST FELL

Mrs. Hansen Says at First Her Case Seemed Hopeless, but She Finally Won Out

Mobile, Ala.—"For seven years," says Mrs. Sigurd Hansen, of this city, "I suffered with womanly troubles, and, at last, was operated on."

I felt better for a time, but soon I had the same trouble as before. I had dizzy spells, and would turn blind and almost fall over. I had pains in my back and side, and was not able to work.

Half the time I could not eat my breakfast, and I always felt weak and had a headache.

One day my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, and I tried it. I felt better, so I took some more.

Now I am well and feel fine. My doctor says I am looking better than ever. I have a good appetite and sleep well.

It is all due to Cardui. I only wish every suffering woman would try it. They would soon feel as good as I do.

You may be sure, when Cardui will relieve and cure such a serious case as that of Mrs. Hansen, that it will, much more quickly and certainly help those women who have no serious symptoms, but are just weak and ailing.

Are you? Try it.

REALTY MEN FORM A BOOST ORGANIZATION

Rain at Midland Is Followed by the First Norther of the Season

Midland, Texas, Oct. 25.—Twelve real estate and land agents in Midland met in the Commercial club rooms and effected an organization. They will cooperate with the Commercial club in advertising the Midland country and securing desirable settlers. A number of short talks were made and valuable suggestions were offered. Plans were laid for an advertising campaign in which $10,000 will be spent educating the people of the middle west and north about the advantages of the Midland country.

About one-half inch of rain fell in this city and surrounding section and was followed by the first norther of the season. The range is looking fine in Midland county and the stockmen are in good spirits.

Walter A. Browning and Miss Kate Weyer, of Pecos, Texas, came to this city and were married by Judge Knack. The ceremony took place in the parlors of the Llano hotel and was witnessed by a few Midland friends of the young couple. Mr. Browning is assistant cashier in the First National bank at Pecos, and is a son of Judge Browning of the people of the middle west and north about the advantages of the Midland country.
